

The radio stations in Phoenix, are not doing there job to let the drivers here in town know where the accidents are. We need a better way to travel in the big city. Thanks XM for your ability to provide what the people need. Sincerely, Sam